There's no wine party without beautiful wine. You can't have a wine party without an impressive wine list. You can't have a wine party without a great menu. You can't have a wine party without a great atmosphere. You can't have a wine party without a great time. You can't have a wine party without a great host. You can't have a wine party without a great location. You can't have a wine party without a great view. You can't have a wine party without a great sunset. You can't have a wine party without a great night. You can't have a wine party without a great morning. You can't have a wine party without a great day. You can't have a wine party without a great week. You can't have a wine party without a great month. You can't have a wine party without a great year.
